

HEALTH CITY STEERING COMMITTEE TERMS OF REFERENCE

Role/Purpose:

The role of the Health City Steering Committee is to provide strategic direction and leadership to Health City to drive the future of health innovation in Edmonton.

The Steering Committee sets out to:

- Develop the strategic direction to create and enhance the ecosystem, namely through the value chain;
- Create local pride in the health innovation industry; to increase participation by students, professors & entrepreneurs;
- Drive entrepreneurship & innovation in Edmonton and increase access to capital;
- Market Edmonton's health innovation assets to target markets;
- Strengthen local collaboration with the health system;
- Develop Edmonton's brand as Canada's Health City;
- Attract health sector industries to the Edmonton market place
- Improve access to and the use of clinical data and analytics;
- Grow strong local companies; and
- Create more sustainability in regards to job creation.

Membership:

- Overlap to ensure knowledge transfer and consistency
- Staggered term

Term:

- 2 year term

Responsibilities:

The Steering Committee is responsible for:

- Fostering collaboration amongst members;
- May be asked to chair a sub-committee if required;
- Maintaining at all times the focus of the vision of Canada's Health City;
- Managing and monitoring the factors outside of the Committee's control that are essential to its success; and
- Following through with action items.

The Steering Committee will commit to:

- Attending all scheduled meetings for the Steering Committee

Updated 1.22.2021

- Share all communication and information across the committees
- Make timely decision and actions to ensure the efficiency of the project
- Notify all committee members if any matter arises that may be deemed to affect the development of the initiative
- Creating, actioning, implementing, and monitoring

Members of the Steering Committee will expect:

- To be given reasonable time to make key decisions;
- To act in the best interests of the health innovation system in Edmonton (and not promote one's own organization above system interests)
- Open and honest discussions;

Governance:

- Consensus items from the Steering Committee will be brought to Health City's Board of Directors for final approval.

Meetings:

- All meetings will be chaired by the Chair of the Health City Board.
- In general delegates or substitutes will not be accepted, except in extenuating circumstances and as approved by the Chair.
- Members may participate via conference/video calls.
- Meeting frequency: Quarterly